ASHLEY ALMEIDA

B.A. (HONS), J.D. (HONS)

Areas of Practice: Corporate / Commercial Law, Real Estate

Ashley Almeida joined our real estate department as an associate lawyer in December 2020. She holds a Juris Doctor from Bond University and an undergraduate degree from McGill University.

Prior to joining our firm, Ashley articulated at a real estate and corporate law firm in North York and spent four years as an associate at a well-known commercial and residential real estate firm in the same area. Thereafter, she founded her own practice and for four years advised her clients on all aspects of real estate, wills and estates, and corporate law.

She next joined a boutique law firm in Ajax, focusing her practice on all aspects of real estate including new build and resale homes and condominium properties throughout Ontario.

Ashley has been the recipient of exceptional client loyalty and is known for her client-focused service and outstanding legal guidance.

While the core focus of her practice remains in real estate, Ashley assists the firm in each of its practice areas of wills and estates and corporate law.

In her space-time, Ashley enjoys cooking, travelling, hiking with her yellow labrador and staying active in the community.
