LAURA ROSATI

B.A., LL.B.

Areas of Practice: Real Estate, Commercial Real Estate

Laura Rosati joined Devry Smith Frank LLP ("DSF") in 2019 as an associate in our Barrie real estate group.

Laura graduated with merit from York University, majoring in Psychology and earned her Law degree at Osgoode Hall Law School. Laura's practice focuses on all aspects of real estate law, including residential and commercial transactions, mortgages, refinances and transfers.

Laura is a board member of both the Barrie Real Estate Lawyers Association (BRELA) and the Child Advocacy Centre Simcoe/Muskoka. She is also a member of the Business & Professional Women (BPW) of Barrie and Women's Art Council, McMichael Canadian Art Collection and is a passionate supporter of The Olive Branch for Children, which is a charity based in Tanzania, Africa, supporting children living with HIV/Aids.

In her spare time, Laura spends time with her two daughters, Sophia and Elise, and their dog Bella.
